

Online courses in Inclusive Dance University – this is an opportunity to learn from the experience of leading experts in the field of inclusive dance and socio-cultural animation. You will learn firsthand about the tools, methods and principles used in their work by professional teachers, choreographers, coaches, rehabilitation specialists, psychologists in Russia and other countries of the World. Without reference to the location, without language barriers and borders.

In addition, you will find the application of knowledge that has long been lying in your luggage without attention, learn new approaches to familiar things, learn to draw ideas, strength and inspiration in the most unexpected moments.

A world of limitless possibilities awaits you. And remember: this is not a set of knowledge on the record, everything needs to be experienced and comprehended.

You can become one of the participants of IDU online courses right now.
